How will your sponsorship benefit your brand?

A sponsorship will provide your brand with visibility in front of the most important groups of professionals in the technology sector.

Early registered attendees are coming from businesses all over Spain, England, and Germany and have both national and international visibility. In addition, this is a chance to be a part of the first, in what is sure to be a pioneering series of events in Spain.

When will it be?

On Saturday October 24. The conference opening will be held at 09:00 and talks are scheduled until 21:00.

The event will conclude with party and rock concert at 23:00.

Where it will be?

In Cadiz, in an emblematic building of 1812, La Bomba.

The Aulario La Bomba is a rehabilitated building that was given to the University and is one of the premier locations in Cádiz. The two-story venue can hold up to 400 people and utilizes three event spaces.

Who is our audience?

Our audience consists of functional software development professionals.

A heterogeneous group who see this paradigm as the future of software development.

What do we need from sponsors?

We need economic support, materials for the workshops and welcome gifts for the participants.
